

Indiana's law should be allowed to be the presiding law for the state. The FCC should not intervene in this matter. If nothing else, eliminate unwanted telemarketing altogether (this would include non-profit as well as charitable insitutions). After all, I do donoate to the organizations I choose and do not want to be bothered by others.